

THE OSSINING PUBLIC LIBRARY

presents the theater production of

Irena Sendler— Rescuing the Rescuer

Libby Skala

Through a kaleidoscope of characters, Libby Skala brings to life the riveting true story of Irena Sendler, a Polish Catholic social worker who defies Nazi rule to save 2,500 Jewish children during WWII. Her story remains lost until three Protestant high school students from rural Kansas find an old clipping, launching them on a journey to discover how one person can change the course of history.

Free. All are welcome to attend. Thursday, January 24th at 7 p.m. in the Budarz Theater

Ossining Public Library | 53 Croton Avenue | Ossining, NY 10562 | 914 941- 2416 | www.ossininglibrary.org