

Ossining Public Library presents the

Friday Night Concert Series

This special Friday night concert series is dedicated to the life and career of David Kornreich, (the late husband of the library theater's namesake, Camille Budarz). There are three scheduled classical concerts in September, October and November. The first performance will be by Black Marble Duo.

No tickets are needed. All are welcome to attend. The second performance in this series is (on October 18th) by "Sonnet Four-Hands." The final performance is (on November 15th) by concert pianist, David Fung.

Friday, September 27th at 7 p.m.
Budarz Theater